

A pretty girl,
A summer night,
A man,
And he'll succeed, O!

Because his pipe
Is filled with sweet
And mel-
Low, rich TUXEDO!

Get yourself properly Tux-ed and you'll make all rivals look as though they were tied to a post—'cause there's no tobacco made that rivals Tuxedo for speeding things up.

You just can't taste the savory flavor and whiff the snappy fragrance of "Tux" without feeling the spirit of hustle shooting through your whole system.

PROF. WILLIS L. MOORE
Ex-Chief of the United States Weather Bureau
"Tuxedo appeals to me because it is fragrant, without being heady; mild, but not tasteless. A thoroughly enjoyable, satisfying pipe tobacco that affords wholesome relaxation."

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

And no wonder! For there's no tobacco leaf in the wide world so rich as the choice, ripe Burley that Tuxedo is made of. When this wonderful leaf is mellowed to perfect mildness and every last bit of bite taken out by the original "Tuxedo Process," you have a smoke that's packed full of life and joy and satisfaction. Try Tuxedo for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hudson of South Ryegate spent Sunday in town with relatives.

H. J. Gale was in Burlington last week on business.

WATERBURY

Child welfare Sunday was saddened at the Congregational church by the first death in the present card roll. The little life of Elizabeth French Woods, the 10-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Woods, was taken at 2 o'clock Sunday morning by complications following whooping cough. Elizabeth was the youngest of a family of four, the others being ill with the same disease. Strong sympathy goes out to the parents and the grandmother, who has aided so much in the care of the little one. A brief prayer service was held at the home yesterday forenoon, conducted by Rev. William L. Boicourt, and the remains, accompanied by the father, were taken on the noon train to Barnard for burial in the family lot. The other children in the family are doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pike at the Center are also mourning the death of Harold, one of their twin sons. The other one, Harry, who has not seemed very strong, is better.

The condition of Town Clerk Fullerton remains more comfortable.

George Carleton is quite poorly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Davis. Al Morse, who was quite ill Sunday, was more comfortable yesterday.

Ivory Turner is ill with scarlet fever at his home on Main street. The young man is said to have a light case of the disease.

Mrs. G. S. Bidwell, who has been confined to the house for 10 days with illness, is much better.

Professor Aldrich was in Burlington last week, attending the teachers' conference.

At the Congregational church Sunday evening a pleasing vocal duet was rendered by Mrs. R. R. Demeritt and Mrs. William L. Boicourt.

Edgar H. Morse received a painful burn last week when, in carrying a teakettle full of boiling water from his home to the mill, he slipped and the entire contents of the kettle went over his hand and arm. He was detained from work for three or four days.

Rev. William L. Boicourt was in Barre yesterday afternoon attending the meeting of the Ministers' Monday club, for which he had a paper on "The Spiritual Qualifications of a Minister."

CHELSEA

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Parkhurst Had Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman D. Parkhurst, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home on South Main street on Friday, March 3, when their children, who reside in this vicinity, were present during the day, they being Mrs. Lillian Parkhurst Aldrich of Post Mills, Mrs. Hattie Parkhurst Doyle, Mrs. Addie Parkhurst Flanders and Fred D. Parkhurst of this town, and several grandchildren were also present. One son and a daughter, R. E. Parkhurst of Brattleboro, and Mrs. Dean Corliss of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., were unable to be present. Many friends called during the day and the occasion was much enjoyed by all.

Mrs. and Mrs. Albert D. Benedict and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hope of South Royalton were in town for a day recently, visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Hattie King, who has been seriously ill for the past week with a complication of heart and liver troubles, is slightly improved and her condition seems more hopeful.

Mrs. Mary Gonyo, who has been a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cook, on the west hill, has returned to her home in Barre City.

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church will hold a left hand social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Young on Wednesday evening of this week. The use of the left hand will be the dominant feature of the evening and slight forfeits will be exacted for violations of this ordinance. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Miss Blanche Reed, who had been the guest at the home of her father, E. G. Reed, for several days, has returned to Randolph, where she has had employment as a waitress during the past year.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tamas Button, March 9.

Lyle R. Beckwith was in Wells River last week Wednesday on business before the probate court.

News was received here last week that Willard J. Moore, a former Chelsea boy, the youngest son of Nathaniel G. Moore, had been killed in a railroad accident at Bonnington, British Columbia.

Mrs. John Flanders and son, Bertie, have moved from the tenement house owned by the Chelsea Bobbin and Wood Manufacturing Co. to the tenement owned by Mrs. Cleveland, which was recently vacated by Oliver King and family.

Mrs. Mary J. Rathburn, who had been afflicted with heart trouble for some time, died suddenly at her home on the east hill on Monday evening, March 6, and the funeral was held from her late home Wednesday morning, Rev. Robert Hazleton officiating, and interment was in the family lot in Highland cemetery.

The family of Fred A. Greene, the lessee of the bobbin shop, arrived last week and they have commenced housekeeping in the tenement house vacated by Mrs. John Flanders.
